

U W

A P

UWA PUBLISHING

2009

COMPLETE CATALOGUE

RESTRAINING ELECTIVE DICTATORSHIP

The Upper House Solution?

Nicholas Aroney, Scott
Prasser and JR Nethercote

December 2008

Politics

AUS $29.95 Pb

320 pages, 235 x 155 mm

9781921401091

The ideas of twenty-one leading international scholars and politicians create provocative debate in this book that examines how western nations living under 'elective dictatorships' can possibly hold their governments accountable.

DOING LIFE

A Biography of Elizabeth Jolley

Brian Dibble

October 2008

Biography

AUS $34.95 Pb

350 pages, 235 x 155 mm

9781921401060

[Jolley's] work is honest about pain but draws us through and beyond it. Brian Dibble is a fine celebrant of that achievement.

The Age

Critically acclaimed writer Elizabeth Jolley wrote about hope and love, the unlovely and loveless. Brian Dibble's authoritative biography, the result of a decade of research in England, Scotland, Germany, Austria and Australia, reveals the real-life people and events which inspired Jolley's fictions.